“On the last meeting in Morgang, Naomi Chua conveyed thy overview of the book of Judges. The message was directed to the young people that were present. Sadly, not many turned up due other commitments. However, the Spirit of God was felt by those present. It was shown how apostasy is in the heart of every man regardless of time and age. As seen in Judges 2, the people of God across all ages apostatized even when there were godly men and hence spiritual declension leads to moral degeneracy. The definition of apostasy in Judges as ‘every man did that which was right in their own eyes’ was brought across personally. God moved the hearts of all the hearers as the ambience was very sobering.” Reported by Shelomi Debbarma, Beraiah Lao and Amaziah Debbarma on behalf of Habakkuk Singh, Esther Yeoh, Naomi Chua and Neariah Debbarma, Morgang, Tripura; 18-22 June, Part 2
